WILD WAILS OF DISPAIR HEARD

PORTUGUESE WOMAN BECAME HYSTERICAL AT DEPARTURE OF RELATIVES ON ALAMEDA.

With another large crowd of cable and steamer passengers the S. S. Alameda departed this morning for San Francisco. The crowd which went to the Oceanic wharf to see the vessel sail was one of the largest that has been to that wharf for months. The band was in attendance. The lei women reaped an unusual harvest of quarters and half dollars for the leis were bought in much greater profusion than usual.

A number of Portuguese left in the steamer. One of the elderly women ashore whose relatives were departing became hysterical and set forth a series of wails and lamentations that resounded over the wharf. She had to be carried away from the place, so overcome was she with grief. Many well known people departed on the vessel. Some went for vacations and some to reside permanently, while a few were visitors leaving from sojourns in Honolulu.

Mrs. F. W. Macfarland departed for San Francisco. She is going to the Coast to attend the graduation exercises of her daughter at one of the California schools.

N. Ohlandt vice president of Honolulu Plantation Company and a large stockholder in various other island sugar concerns, departed for the mainland after a brief visit to the islands. He inspected the various holdings in which he was interested. He was accompanied by his two daughters, Mrs. Lange and Mrs. Roesh.

Frank L. Hoogs proprietor of the Star, was a departing passenger for the mainland. He is going to St. Louis to attend the Press Congress at the exposition which meets May 14.

H. D. Pender and family were departing passengers. He was carpenter at the local naval station for some months but has been ordered to Mare Island to be examined for retirement from the Naval service, owing to injuries sustained while on one of the battleships some years ago.

W. E. Pinkham the architect, was a departing passenger.

F. W. Smith formerly assistant manager of the Young Hotel was a departing passenger for the mainland, in company with his wife.

State Senator A. Hemrich of Seattle was a departing passenger for the mainland. He has been here on a business and pleasure trip.

W. C. Lyon the proprietor of the Lyon Book Store was a departing passenger. He was accompanied by his wife.

J. Wakefield manager of the dry goods department of T. H. Davies and Company, Limited was a departing passenger for the mainland. He goes east on business for that firm.

The Alameda sailed a few minutes after 9 o'clock this morning. She is due in San Francisco next Tuesday.

DEMOCRATS ARE BUSY AS BEES

ORGANIZING PRECINCT CLUBS IN ORDER TO SWELL THE RANKS
AND GET VOTERS TO ATTEND.

The Democrats have adopted quite a novel scheme to aid them in affecting their organization of precinct clubs throughout the fifth and fourth districts. Sub-clubs are being formed in the various precincts. These clubs are not the central organization but are simply gotten together for the purpose of enabling the people residing in particular localities to meet at the place most convenient to them and discuss the issue of the campaign.

Last night such an organization was effected at Manuel Rosa's place in Maunaloa Valley. J. K. Prendergast, Frank Harvey, S. Umauma, David Kahaliahu David Kahi and Malua spoke. The regular precinct enrollment book of the First Precinct club of the Fourth District was taken to the meeting and 19 members in addition to those already enrolled, signed. The following were elected officers chairman S. D. Moepomo, secretary John Kalimapehu, treasurer Nalei.

By this organization the Democrats living in the Maunaloa district can meet when they wish without going to any remote section of the precinct to attend the club. Other divisions of the precinct will probably effect such a suborganization.

A similar organization was effected in Kaliahuku Monday night. Thirty three new names were enrolled in that section. Kamohali was chosen chairman and Solomon Kealoha secretary. The organization of the sixth precinct club of the fourth district was effected last night at Waverley Hall. The following permanent officers were chosen Edward Wolters president, T. Calahan, vice-president, F. W. Weed, secretary; John Coffee, financial secretary; J. J. McGuire, treasurer.

A meeting of the same club will be held next Tuesday evening.

A rally of the Democratic voters of the Fourth Precinct of the Fourth District is to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight at Shamrock Hall. The purpose is to effect permanent organization of the precinct club.

OLD OFFENDER FINED.

H. McCallum, who runs an alleged blind pig near Camp McKinley was before Judge Lindsay today on a charge of selling liquor without a license and was fined $250 and costs. McCallum was arrested several days ago on a similar charge but was released, no prosecution being brought. He was later arrested and the charge pressed against him.

FOUNDED A POI POUNDER.

Cheong Ping was in Judge Lindsay's court this morning to testify against four natives whom he claimed had committed assault and battery on him. Evidently some one had done so for his head looked like it had come into contact with a steam roller. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kaumiumi and Mr. and Mrs. Laelae were charged with committing the attack. The Chinese said he had visited their residence to collect an alleged bill of $112.50 due for poi. The quartette was claimed by Cheong to have pounded him worse than he rounded his poi. The court fined the male defendant $15 and costs each and discharged the women.

KALUA'S ADVICE.

Attorney General Lorrin Andrews yesterday received a wireless telegram from Maui, informing him that ex-Judge J. W. Kalua had called a mass meeting of the natives and advised them to testify against the claim of Lahimaluna Seminary in the water rights contest with Pioneer Mill Co. Mr. Kalua's argument is that by the defeat of its claim the school will be wiped out, when the people would have all the water they needed because the plantation would not need the entire supply.

MOTHERS AND TEACHERS

A very interesting program has been arranged for the closing meeting of the Mothers' and Teachers' Club to be held in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Friday, May 6, at 3 o'clock. Miss Claire Uecke will read a paper on "Children's Punishments." Music will be furnished by the Kaulani Home chorus and Mrs. Rita Shanks. At this meeting the election of officers for the following year will be held and it is hoped that there may be a good attendance.
